

Four Routes towards Skipper Coastal $\leq 9m$

Pre-entry requirements -

Proof of Identity

Eyesight Test Certificate

Over 16 years of Age

Doctor's Certificate

150 Hours
logged sea time
of which at least 50 hours
must be night
hours

Plus

Holder of a Day
Skipper Category B or C
certificate

150 Hours
logged sea time
on vessels $>9m$
in length of
which at least 50 hours must
be night hours
obtained under
the tuition of a certificated
skipper

Plus

Attendance at an approved
course

200 Hours
logged sea time
on Category C
or higher
vessels $\leq 9m$
length of which
at least 50
hours must be
night hours
obtained under
the tuition of a
certificated
skipper

300 Hours
logged sea time
on Category C
or higher
vessels $\leq 9m$
length of which
at least 50
hours must be
night hours not
under the tuition
of a certificated
skipper

Examination
SAMSA
*examiner to determine depth
of each part
dependent on candidate's
experience*

Note: After 2006
candidates do
not have to
repeat modules
already completed

Examination - Prescribed written examination
- Prescribed practical examination

Marine Notice #13/2006

Five Routes towards Skipper Coastal >9m

Pre-entry requirements -

Proof of Identity

SAMSA Medical Certificate & Eyesight Test

Practical First Aid Sea Certificate

ICASA Restricted R/T Operators Certificate of Competence

Over 18 years of Age

Survival at Sea/Life Raft Proficiency Certificate

Fire Fighting Certificate (2 Day)

100 Hours logged sea time on vessels >9m in length of which at least 50 hours must be night hours Plus Holder of a Skipper (Coastal or Offshore \leq 9m) certificate	150 Hours logged sea time on vessels >9m in length of which at least 50 hours must be night hours Plus Day Skipper Category B >9m certificate	250 Hours logged sea time on vessels >9m in length of which at least 50 hours must be night hours Plus Attendance at an approved course	350 Hours logged sea time on vessels >9m in length of which at least 50 hours must be night hours obtained under the tuition of a certificated skipper	Sailing Route A SA Sailing Coastal Skipper Certificate 	Examination SAMSA examiner to determine depth of each part dependent on candidate's experience Note: After 2006 candidates do not have to repeat modules already completed
---	--	---	--	--	---

Examination - Prescribed written examination
- Prescribed practical examination

Marine Notice #13/2006